PANDEMIC PONDERINGS: GUIDANCE IN THE TIME OF CORONA

Each week we will share reflections and resources from different areas to expand our minds and soothe our hearts as we endure the COVID-19 crisis together. This week's reflection is courtesy of Dr Hatem al-Haj's Facebook Page.

Alhamdulillah,

This is the time to remember the Stations of the Travelers. For those of you who have been learning about them, it is important to know that some people become established in them without knowing their details or even names; others learn all their intricacies but never get to visit them. The choice is ours. You never get to perfect any of them in isolation from the rest. However, this is a time when we should remember certain stations like: Reflection, Wakefulness, Repentance, Self-Reckoning, Fleeing, Sympathetic Concern, Submissive Solemnity, Hope, Caring, Trust, Surrender, Patience, Contentment, (yes, Gratefulness), Altruism, Humbleness, Pietistic Heroism, Resolve, Poverty, Wisdom, Tranquility, Love, and Timeliness. We haven't talked about Oneness yet, but all we talked about is about it.

Remember how our awareness of the diversity of decrees and World conditions (farq) allows us to be alive, mindful, responsive, appropriate, taking the right precautions and making the right provisions. However, our awareness of the single unity (jam') of the source of all this, its first and final cause, gives comfort to our hearts and makes our goal in life clear and simple (and yes, attainable): our togetherness with Him and self-annihilation in His cause to be one with Him in purpose and to subsist by Him, for Him, with Him. Allah.

وصلى الله على محمد والحمد لله رب العالمين
